

Woodbury County Fair Cook Out

NEW Location – West Fair Ground Entrance – Next to the Fair Office

12:00 p.m. – Cookout Contest Judges Tasting

1:45 p.m. – Announce Cookout Contest Winners – Free Stage

Superintendents: Kari Cassens (712) 253-7430 or kari_c37@hotmail.com

The “Beef Grill-Off” of the past several years has expanded to include a variety of fresh Iowa meats. The Woodbury County Farm Bureau Cookout Contest will be held on Saturday, August 3, 2019, at the Woodbury County Fair. The Cookout Contest is sponsored by Woodbury County Farm Bureau, Tyson Meats, and the Woodbury County Fair. Winners will have the opportunity to represent Woodbury County at the Iowa State Fair Cookout Contest (August 13, 2019) The Woodbury County Fair Cookout Contest Judging will begin at 12:00 on Saturday, August 3, 2019, with fan tasting to begin after judge’s samples have been delivered. Winners will be announced on the Free Stage at approximately 1:45 p.m. Prizes for category winners, including, but not limited to cash, trophies, and ribbons. For additional information contact Kari Cassens or the Woodbury County Fair Office.

Entry Categories (Judged in this Order):

Combo/Specialty – Combo: A recipe combining two or more meats from the eligible meat categories.
Specialty: Domestically raised meats including venison, goat, fish, etc. excluding wild game.

Pork

Lamb

Poultry

Beef – No Brisket due to Time Restrictions at the State level

NEW! Tyson Foods Ribeye Challenge (Woodbury County Competition Only)

People’s Choice (Woodbury County Competition Only) – 150 Samples Needed for Public Tasting.

Rules: A contestant may participate as an individual or a team. The contestant must furnish equipment, including the grill, generator (please contact Kari as there may be generators available), and all supplies for their entry. Contestants may begin setting up and cooking at any time after 9:00 pm on Friday. Marinating in advance is acceptable; however, all meats must be cooked entirely on site. Contestants interested in going to the Iowa State Fair who plan to prepare Beef are limited to the following cuts; chuck or round primal cuts including ground chuck or ground round. Contestants may use any cut of Beef for the County Only Cookout. Contestants will be judged in the following areas: Taste, Appearance, and Originality. Each contestant will prepare four judge’s sample plates and 150 samples for the People’s Choice Competition if you choose to participate. Good food handling and preparation guidelines must be followed. Pre-registration is required by Friday, July 26th by filling out the entry form available on the www.woodburycountyfair.com website or the Woodbury County Fair Office.

NEW! Tyson Foods Ribeye Challenge – Anyone can enter. A ribeye will be provided by Tyson Foods of Sioux City. You are to season, marinate, smoke, grill, cook the ribeye however you please and present it to our panel of judges. Complete the entry form on our website – www.woodburycountyfair.com.